- ii) in the case of Services (other than Commissioning Services) and Projects, or any phase thereof, the next Working Day following completion of the Services or Project or the relevant phase thereof (as the case may be).

Absence of such notification will be deemed as acceptance of the Goods.

b) Buyer’s failure to take Delivery (Goods)

If for any reason the Buyer cannot accept delivery of the Goods at the time when the Goods are due and ready for delivery, the Seller may, at the Seller’s election, either:

- i) store the Goods pending their actual delivery and the Buyer shall be liable to the Seller for the costs (including insurance) of so doing but the Seller shall be under no obligation to insure the goods in storage and the risk of any loss or damage to the Goods howsoever arising shall be borne by the Buyer; or

- ii) The Seller therefore provides no warranty that the technician's time to be delivered under the ICT Support Services will enable the Agreed Tasks to be completed on a regular basis nor to ensure the error free operation of the Buyer's systems nor that all requested Other Services will be provided when requested. However, the Seller will use its reasonable endeavours to achieve the Agreed Tasks on a regular basis and to provide such Other Services as may be requested. The Seller will notify a representative of the Buyer in the event that the Agreed Tasks have not been completed on a regular basis, together with a proposal on how best to address the non-completion of the Agreed Tasks.
